

ALLIES CONTINUE ENCIRCLING MOVEMENT

MASS MEETINGS NAME BIG BUNCH OF CANDIDATES FOR ALBANY ALDERMEN

FOURTH WARD MOBILIZES ALMOST ITS ENTIRE MANPOWER FOR COUNCILMANIC SPRINTING.

Meet Again Tonight

MAYOR, PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL, CHIEF OF POLICE CANDIDATES TO BE NOMINATED.

Politics has reconvened in Albany. At ward mass meetings held last night, some 25 representative men were placed in nomination for aldermen. Eight are to be elected, two from each of the four wards. Tonight, at a mass meeting to be held at the city hall, candidates for mayor, chief of police and president of the city council will be nominated.

Then the campaign will be "off" and the fur will fly until the ides of September, when the voters will put a crimp in the aspirations of the unlucky.

Nominations for aldermen follow: Fourth Ward—H. N. Binford, Henry R. Davis, Jim Crowe, Carl Patterson, Lamar Penney, J. L. Proctor, E. R. Wolfe, H. O. Troup, E. L. Thomas, B. E. Preuit, C. E. Malone, L. B. Wyatt.

First Ward—E. F. Rhinehardt, A. B. Harvey, George D. Redding, Sid H. Robertson.

Second Ward—J. D. L. Burns, T. R. Covey, Turner Eves, W. W. Johnson, J. J. Waddell, Z. P. Watkins.

Third Ward—A. C. Joiner, W. J. McCall.

But four of the present aldermen were placed in nomination. These are E. R. Wolfe and John L. Proctor, of the fourth, and A. B. Harvey and George D. Redding of the first. The second ward nominated among others W. W. Johnson, a former alderman. In the third ward, after a bit of strategic scrimmaging, a regular ward primary was held and all but two of the candidates eliminated. These will go into office without a struggle. Two years ago this ward staged the most interesting of all the aldermanic fights, but apparently the hatchet has been buried deep. As a matter of course, many of the men placed in nomination will not become active candidates. The nomination was intended merely as a compliment in quite a number of instances.

AMENDISTS ELECT FOUR OF FIVE MEMBERS OF STATE COMMITTEE

The amendists elected four of five members of the democratic state executive committee from the Eighth congressional district in the election of Tuesday. This became definitely known today when the official count was received from Jackson county, the last to report.

Those elected are: A. G. Patterson, Albany; John White, Moulton; Ed Johnston, Huntsville; Virgil Bouldin, Scottsboro; J. F. Koonce, Tusculum.

Ed Johnston, of Huntsville, brother of Forney Johnston and son of the late U. S. Senator Joseph F.

Johnston, was the sole anti-amendist elected. He nosed out Dr. Inzer B. Wyatt, of Huntsville, amendist. Mr. Johnston lead his ticket, with Tennis Tidwell, of Albany, as second. The amendist ticket was led by Judge Koonce of Lauderdale county, who becomes the member from the state at large. A. G. Patterson, of Albany, received the second highest vote cast.

The control of the state committee by the amendists is now assured, and there is a strong probability that A. G. Patterson will be elected state chairman.

Against 1,011

The vote in the Danville precinct was not returned, but this does not affect the result, the majority for the tax is so overwhelming.

DENT WOULD CALL YOUNGSTERS LAST

THINKS THAT OLDER MEN SHOULD FIGHT FIRST.

(International News Service.)

Washington, Aug. 17.—Chairman Dent of the House military affairs committee favors writing into the new man power bill extending the draft age a provision that older men subject to the draft be called before the 18, 19 and 20 year classes are. In its present form the bill leaves it to the discretion of the President when these shall be drafted.

Mr. Dent strongly advocates that the youths of 18, 19 and 20, if they are required for the army, be the last to be called. It is his plan to have those between 31 and 32 called first, and so on up to 45, until the older eligibles are exhausted.

While no estimate is made of the length of time it will take to get the bill through Congress, it is believed that the measure will be passed by the end of August.

FRENCH AND BRITISH SMASH AHEAD; SMALL GAINS ARE ANNOUNCED DRIVE AGAINST ALBERT, LASSIGNY AND ROYE IS CONTINUED

HUGE CHUNKS ARE BITTEN OUT

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 17.—Confirmation of the capture of Irkutsk by the Czecho-Slovaks and the Siberian people's army was received today by the state department from the American charge at Pekin, who reported that communication had been established with that city. Moscow is still severed from outside communication, according to the report.

Allied troops have again smashed ahead on the Picardy and Flanders front. On the Picardy front the British and French are carrying out with steady successes their triple enveloping movement against the German key positions of Albert and Lassigny and the German base at Roye.

North of the Roye road the British last night lunged forward, making another gain, while the French drove forward south of the city.

Although the operations of the past 24 hours have been on a minor scale, the allies are biting huge chunks out of the German front in the Merris-Vieux-Berquin sector of the Flanders front, and on the southern end of the Picardy battle zone.

The allied troops are about one mile from Roye and are pushing on despite German resistance.

The German line bulges in a southwesterly direction in that area, and if the French advance continues much further the Germans probably will be compelled to withdraw, just as they have been retreating on the Lys salient and north of Albert. There is a lull in the fighting along the Vesle river, where American troops are holding the line.

(International News Service.)
With the American Army on the Aisne-Vesle Front, Aug. 17.—The French war cross with the palm has been posthumously conferred upon Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, who was killed in an air fight, by the French general commanding the American sector of that front. The decoration will be sent to Col. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay.

(International News Service.)
London, Aug. 17.—British forces have advanced in three sectors of the Picardy-Flanders front, the war office announced today. Advances were made north of the Roye road, north of the Ancre and near Vieux. The British and French are driving ahead in the direction of Roye, the German base, in an encircling movement.

(International News Service.)
Paris, Aug. 17.—French forces that are encircling the German base at Roye from the south fought their way through Leges wood during the night reaching the eastern edge, the war office announced today. German assaults between the Matz and Oise rivers were repulsed.

Woman to Wear Corporal's Chevron

(International News Service.)
Paris, Aug. 17 (Delayed Cable Message).—A woman has been honored by a major commanding an Amex battalion with the right to wear the honorary chevrons of a corporal.

She is Mrs. Maude Redford Warren of Chicago, the well known writer for American magazines. The right to wear the chevrons was granted her in appreciation of her services as an Army Y. M. C. A. canteen worker on the Alsace front in German territory. She was frequently under fire where she distributed "smokes" and "eats" to the soldiers.

Mrs. Warren works on a "Y" automobile canteen, serving and talking to thousands of soldiers, cheering and comforting them. Paris headquarters of the American Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. received the report of the honors bestowed upon her.

1,450,000 YANKEE SOLDIERS IN FRANCE GEN. MARCH TELLS SENATE COMMITTEE

CHIEF OF STAFF ALSO SAYS TOTAL NUMBER UNDER ARMS IS 3,000,000.

McCain Promoted

SENDING OF LARGE INCREMENTS TO SIBERIA OPPOSED. OFFICERS TO BE SENT HOME TO REST.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 17.—American troops in France and on the way now total 1,450,000. Gen. March, chief of staff, informed members of the Senate military affairs committee today.

Increased shipments of troops may now be expected, said Gen. March, due to the vastly improved conditions both on this side the Atlantic and in France.

He told of the remarkable health conditions existing in the overseas forces, alluding to the surgeon general's announcement that the hospital death rate was only two for every 1,000 men.

Members of the committee, following the conference, expressed the conviction that the war department's program for 3,800,000 men in France by June of next year would be realized without any question of doubt. It was learned that the American army, the overseas forces and those forces at home combined, now total more than 3,000,000 men.

Gen. March revealed that the 88th division has gone overseas, while the 82nd division is in a sector north of Toul. No word has been received as to whether the latter division has been in action.

GEN. M'CAIN PROMOTED TO DIVISION COMMANDER

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 17.—High ranking officers of the American overseas forces who have begun to give under the strain of what was termed "wonderful work" will come back to the United States and rest, Chief of Staff March announced at today's conference with newspaper men.

Gen. March also stated that Maj. Gen. Henry P. McCain, present adjutant general, has been "rewarded for his splendid work in handling army detail," by being assigned as commander of the 12th infantry division, to be formed at Camp Devens, Mass. Gen. McCain will be succeeded as adjutant general by Brig. Gen. Peter C. Harris, now an assistant to Gen. McCain.

MARCH OPPOSES SENDING OF TROOPS TO SIBERIA

(International News Service.)
Washington, Aug. 17.—Opposition to any policy of sending large increments of American troops into Siberia was voiced by Gen. March, chief of staff, in his weekly conferences with members of the Senate military affairs committee today. He is understood to have told the committee that the sending of a handful of men to Siberia would necessitate the sending of larger and larger forces to rescue these and in time the withdrawal of troops might interfere with the plan of "fighting it out on the western front."

Gen. March, senators said, expressed the belief that the eastern front would never be re-established as an offensive front, and indicated that the Russian situation continues fraught with grave possibilities.

Gen. March admitted that the present offensive in France was practically at a standstill and would not likely be renewed.

ALABAMA'S NEXT GOVERNOR

(Birmingham Age-Herald.)

Alabama in selecting Thomas E. Kilby as next governor has chosen wisely. There were some unpleasant features in the recent campaign, but these may all now be forgotten. It is the duty of every citizen to get his mind off politics and on the big, worthwhile problems of the state and nation.

Mr. Kilby was the representative of the paramount campaign issue, the prohibition amendment, but the voters of Alabama did not forget that there are other weighty matters to be disposed of by the next administration and that the man who had made such a conspicuous success of his private affairs was just the man to entrust with the conduct of the state's business for the next four years.

It may truly be said that Alabama now faces a period of upbuilding—a period of constructive endeavor. The new governor will go into office with a legislature wholly sympathetic with him and his views and with a desire to carry out his legislative wishes. If campaign wounds have been made, they will be quickly healed. The new governor and legislature will be peculiarly the friend of the whole state. They know the wishes and desires of the rural sections, but they will be more inclined than has been an administration for many years to give the larger cities of the state a fair hearing and show a real interest in helping work out their problems. Birmingham, Mobile and Montgomery will all have a friend in the new governor. This will be especially important at a time when the open warrior and shipbuilding and other industries are doing so much to bring distant cities of the state into closer touch and co-operation.

Alabama faces a period of genuine constructive effort and in this the new administration is entitled to receive and will receive the wholehearted co-operation of the people from the Tennessee valley to the gulf.

TO HELP DISABLED SOLDIERS.

(From the New York Medical Journal.)

Several departments of the government are preparing to extend aid to soldiers disabled during the war.

The surgeon general of the army has made elaborate plans for physical rehabilitation, and mental reconstruction will go hand in hand with the distinctly medical work. The federal vocational board will give aid in co-operating with the medical authorities, and the interior department will have land ready for prospective settlers.

Many well intentioned individuals have offered to take crippled soldiers into their service as watchmen, messengers, and in positions of similar character. While the spirit of these offers is appreciated, they conflict with the policy of the medical department of the army. From the time a wounded soldier is taken to the field hospital he is encouraged to understand that the seriousness of his wounds will not render him worthless for useful work. The work of reconstructing is carried on simultaneously.

At the present time there are many soldiers in the army hospitals in this country who have been crippled in the course of duty. In many cases these men are receiving the preliminary training that will be finished by civil boards authorized to continue the work begun by the surgeon general. They will receive a training that will make them competent in the trade or profession they elect to follow.

Albany, Ala., Aug. 16, 1918.

TO THE VOTERS OF ALBANY—GREETING:

The state primary for the nomination of state and federal officers for the ensuing terms having come and gone, it is now in order to turn our attention to the municipal campaign that is now close upon us.

The city convention for the nomination of officers to serve in their several official duties for ensuing two years is set for Saturday night, Aug. 17, 1918, at the city hall, at 8 o'clock. The officers placed in nomination at this convention are for mayor, president of the board and chief of police, the aldermen to represent their wards having been nominated at preceding mass meetings in each ward acting simultaneously.

Before the city convention there will be three self-announced candidates' names presented for nomination for mayor, two of which have already received the honors for the third time, and there does not appear in their official records any grave reasons why they should be continued in office. Were there, there would be a unanimous call from the voters of the town for their return to office for the good of the service, but not so.

The writer is also a candidate. The two first mentioned have it over me on "avoids" and "I am willing to concede, but in point of patriotism and ability to administer the affairs of state I will not concede the margin of a chalk line to either in natural ability and doer of things. Now, from this point of view, isn't it but fair to compare the civilian records of each of the contestants for the high honors sought. If either of my opponents has done as much or more than I for the upbuilding of the town, I challenge him or them to show it up. I do not care to specialize my activities, but in point of executive ability I would refer to any voter who cares to make the investigation to Mr. B. Crawford and Dr. M. W. Murray, with whom I served on the board of mayor and aldermen during the darkest days, encountered by the municipality, then called "Town of New Decatur." Also in my school association with the board of school trustees—Mr. W. A. Bibb, then, as now, president of the board. Though I don't believe anyone would question my ability, still it's not "mal apropos" to refer to my former association in municipal affairs at a time that tried men's souls.

In the race for mayor it will be a triangular fight. I am placed between the "devil and the blue sea," as it were, "attacked on the one flank" by poisoned gas bombs, on the other by a "barage of machine guns." Now, if my friends will come to my rescue they will life me over the top somewhat "damaged and disfigured" but not beyond repair, by a handsome plurality, if not a majority.

I am informed by good authority that the consensus of opinion of the fair-minded, intelligent voter of the town that by right the honors of mayoralty should fall to my lot for one term, which is all I ask, as a tribute and endorsement of loyalty and service for the town's best interests.

I would rather have one line of tribute while I am alive than a quarter page of obituary and banks of flowers after I am dead. Flowers soon wither and words forgotten after the print gets cold.

A last and parting word to the voters:—Don't be misled. If you believe the honor should come to me, then stand by your guns and vote your honest convictions, though the heavens fall. Remember this is the last chance. Age will preclude me ever offering again and I really would like to round out my active business career as chief executive of the town I helped to build. My opponents have the advantage of me in age to the extent of a score of years to a score and ten. Then then can well afford to stand aside for the short term of two years.

After the nominations I shall, so far as I can, without making too heavy draft on my vitality, make a personal canvass. Up to this time I haven't turned a wheel, while my opponents have been busy getting pre-election promises, which, of course, they have a right to do, but while doing this they ought not attack my defenseless condition, but give me a square deal.

Respectfully,
CHAS. BASSETT.

A THOUGHT FOR USE SUNDAY, AND EVERY OTHER DAY

BY OBSERVER.

In the long ago, when such cities as New York, Decatur and New Decatur (now Albany) used "hay burners" to draw their rapid transit cars, there was a certain rich man. He conceived an idea. He said within himself: "Are there not certain aristocratic, powerful mares now drawing the street cars of New York?" "Go to, now, I will purchase large numbers of these high class animals, put them on my new stock farm and lo, the colts derived from these priceless-dames will be long winded, large, and powerful horses."

In due time the new off-spring arrived. But they were prematurely old; their ears flopped, their hearing was impaired, their sight was bad; and worst of all, those colts of the tired New York mares, were in their turn, "born tired!" You have just got to have the right kind of vitality. If you have, you need not worry about the individual acts of your life. But from our tired, sin fallen ancestors—God bless them every one—we will never inherit sufficient vitality. Of course we may come into sufficient vitality, which if carefully nourished, will sustain our physical life for three score, sixty, or even four score years. But how about our spiritual life—meaning the ability to contend against the "world, the flesh and the devil?" We have not got this kind of strength our own selves, that is all. The scriptural challenge is right: "Show me the man who has overcome the world, save through Christ?"

Christ challenges our endorsement and our eternal support. He stands at the cross-roads of life. If you would go to the right, you must accept His hand and His help. It is this firm belief in some men that holds them to their task of preaching Christ, both in evil and good report. When you reach the cross roads of decision, if you will go to the left, the way is open, but remember that the "left road" finally draws up on the left side of the Good Master, and that from this position the final march is taken up to the bad place.

Do not take the "left road!" Do not do it! Say to yourself: "I will go along the road of right living, though, I should stumble every step of the way—though it be a flinty, hard road; and though, I should be crucified with my head downward as St. Peter was."

You do not need to stumble all through life. "They that wait upon the Lord, shall renew their strength; they shall mount up on wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint." And though your road shall be "the way of the Cross," remember that, there is a crown waiting for you beyond the golden portals.

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly. Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then... it would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful."

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three... I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

I am married now and have 3 children... Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui if I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

If you are nervous or weak, have headaches, backaches, or any of the other ailments so common to women, why not give Cardui a trial? Recommended by many physicians. In use over 40 years. Begin taking Cardui today. It may be the very medicine you need.

Letters From Trench & Camp"Somewhere in France."*

Mrs. J. T. Hubbard,
Albany, Ala.
Dear Mama and All:

Your letter received last night and was so glad to hear from you again so soon. Am still well and am doing fine as could be, so don't worry about me for a minute. I get everything I need. You wanted to know if I had plenty of socks, yes I have eight or ten pair and they are all new and I carry them in my pack, so I have them handy. We get plenty of everything and getting just plenty to eat. Guess you all are planning for a grand and glorious Fourth tomorrow, but don't guess I will have much of a Fourth of July. I had a letter from Emmet Gilliam yesterday and said he was working in the shops and buying Liberty Bonds. I got the pictures all right and think it is good of you all. I wish I had one to send you but haven't one now. I had some made the first time I was in the trenches and I gave a girl the negative to have some made and as soon as she sends them I'll send you some.

The people sure were good to us in the last town we camped in and it was the first time American troops had been there. I rented me a room with a mighty fine old lady. Just her and one son and two girls, and also take my meals there, and when I got ready to leave she didn't want to take any money for me staying there but I made her take ten francs. Leslie spent one night with me and I think he would like to beat me out of my girl. You ought to have seen me going to the Catholic church with her. It was most too early for me to get up, but I had already promised her I would carry her, so I had to go.

Have just got to stop as its most supper time and I can't afford to miss a meal for I sure do eat since I have been over here. I know you have wondered why I haven't written sooner but we've been on the road for about two weeks and just stopped yesterday. We moved from the front we were on and are on a much larger one this time, so this is the first chance we had to write and I don't know when I will get to mail this as the post office hasn't opened yet, but am looking for it to open tomorrow. Tell Cora and Maude will write them tomorrow. Be good and write real soon. Leslie sends his best regards to you. Yours,
ALVIN J. HUBBARD

"Pop" Geers Again Breaks Record

Philadelphia, Aug. 17.—A world's record for trotting stallions was hung up by St. Frisco, driven by Ed Geers, in the free-for-all event, the feature of the closing day of the grand circuit meeting at Belmont track today. St. Frisco won the race in straight heats, with Lu Princeton second and Miss Bertha Dillon third.

In the first heat, pushed hard by Miss Bertha Dillon, the stallion stepped the half in one minute, and the mile in 2:01½, equaling his own world's stallion record made last year. St. Frisco won the second and third heats in 2:04½ and 2:03 and the three heats lowered the world's record for three heats, made by Etawah at Lexington in 1914.

Mr. Geers is a brother-in-law of W. R. Smith of Albany. Miss Mary Geers, of Memphis, daughter of the great reinsman is now a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

SUICIDES NOT WELCOME IN UNDERTAKER'S ROOMS
Asheville, N. C., Aug. 17.—When a luckless rider of a runaway motor cycle recently was hurled through a window of an undertaking establishment and escaped injury, the sarcastic undertaker remarked:
"Get out of here. Customers are not permitted to kill themselves on these premises."

Voice of People.

Camp Pike, Ark., Aug. 10, 1918.
Albany-Decatur Daily:

Wish you would please give me space in your paper to explain that I was not court-martialed or shot, either one, on Aug. 9.

It seems that the report got out in Albany that I was court-martialed and shot, which caused my people lots of worry and expense.

Wish you would give this your attention and fix it up for me as I can't come home to do it myself.

Like Camp Pike very well.
ERWIN W. PHILLIPS.

LET JOY BE UNCONFINED: COP IS CAUGHT SPEEDING

San Francisco, Aug. 17.—Joyful tidings to the cop-hunted and haunted motorist, the unprotected, down-trodden, sinned-against motorist, whose one fear in life is the uniformed, be-starred, stern-visaged traffic officers.

One of those birds has been arrested—and for breaking the traffic laws, too, the very traffic laws he and his squalid kind so vigorously and so relentlessly uphold. The victim was Policeman Alfred E. Moreen, who was in such a hurry to catch a ferry boat that he cracked the laws. Policeman J. J. Cummings nabbed the offender and took him to court just like an ordinary speeder—and Policeman Moreen missed the boat.

A small showing but brimful of interest—Sparkling pretty garments that show very decisively the leading style features.

Here are some hints about what you'll see. Tight skirts, normal or slightly dropped waist line, stylishly fitted waist with normal shoulders—so much for the silhouette. Panel effects, pleats, drapes, gathers and sashes are shown in delightful variety. Fringes, beads, embroidery, braid and buttons are the most favored trimmings. Tricotine, serge, wool, jersey, velour, gabardine, satin, meteor, georgette, crepe de chine and taffeta are the best fabrics. Navy blue leads in colors, with tan, grays, taupes, copenhagen, blues and black closely following.
